

THE BRAHMA '56

THE 1956 BRAHMA

Presented by

The Senior Class

of

Hallettsville High School

Hallettsville, Texas

FOREWORD

We, the annual staff of the 1956 Brahma, in an effort to preserve the many happy moments of this school year, present this record of events and personalities. Whether we have succeeded in making this Brahma a pleasant remembrance of 1956 at Hallettsville High, is for you to decide.

We wish to express our appreciation to all who have helped in any way to compile this yearbook.

SUPERINTENDENT

Students,

We take pride in our material growth, but that is not enough. Let us grow more in our desire for greater academic accomplishments, in loyalty to our school and community and in our spiritual life.

May your best endeavors be directed toward keeping our school out in front in the most worthwhile of all accomplishments - building good citizens.

I hope that you will regard your school days as days of great opportunities for preparing yourself for happier living and for being of service to your fellow man.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "Rankin Robertson". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, prominent "R" and a long, sweeping underline.

Rankin Robertson
Superintendent of Schools

To the Seniors of 1956:

Let me remind you of the fact that the foundation of success in any field of endeavor is proper training. The cornerstone is practical experience. Supported on these essentials, the structure of a successful career can be erected with the following important building blocks:

1. The ability to get along with people.
2. A talent for analyzing, organizing and delegating work.
3. Enthusiasm, honesty, and sincerity.
4. The ability to influence people.

Respectfully yours,

Allen L. Albrecht

Dear Students:

The Four-Way Test

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

If we will all follow these four simple rules of living our lives will be a great deal more meaningful.

A great deal of planning and preparation goes into the publishing of a successful school annual. The Staff of this year's THE BRAHMA has worked hard to preserve for us the school year 1955-56. We are all grateful to them for a job well done.

Elementary Principal,

Roy Abshier, Jr.

ALMA MATER

We hail our Alma Mater,
Hail Maroon and White,
We will boost the Brahmas,
As they play and fight,
And fight and fight and fight,
We love our dear ol' high school,
Love each girl and boy,
Hail Hallettsville High School,
Our pride, our joy.
